Professional Development

- We are excited to announce that the RP Conference 2023 will be held April 12–14, 2023, at the San Mateo Marriott/San Francisco Airport. We are planning for an in-person conference and are looking forward to being together again!
  - The RP Conference 2023 theme is Owning Equitable Outcomes: Using Research & Planning to Change the Narrative, which highlights how IRPE offices and professionals are inspiring change and supporting equitable outcomes for students at their respective institutions.
  - The Call for Proposals is now open! The deadline for proposal submissions is Thursday, December 1, at 11:59 pm.
    - This year, sessions will be accepted under three tracks:
      - Planning & Institutional Effectiveness
      - Research & Evaluation
      - RP Toolbox
    - New this year: A Q&A session designed to support you with the development of your proposal will be offered in early-to-mid November. Stay tuned for details coming to the RP listserv soon!
    - Learn more and submit a proposal!
- Please join us on Wednesday, November 16th from 9:00–10:30 am for our next IRPE Equity Research & Social Justice Collaborative discussion focused on discussing methods and practices IRPE offices can utilize to foster campus cultures that are able to activate racial equity data and inspire positive change for racially minoritized students.
  - We cover approaches and strategies to assess institutional data culture, facilitate equity data conversations, and cultivate inquiry and curiosity amongst campus practitioners around why racial equity gaps exist.
  - In addition, the monthly space provides opportunities for cooperative problem-solving and collaboration on racial equity related efforts across campuses.
  - This series is led by Hannah Lawler of Santa Monica College and Gio Sosa of Crafton Hills College and will be hosted on the third Wednesday each month through February 2023. Here's a link to register for this free series.
