ASCCC Accreditation Institute 2022

Theme/Title (Draft Suggestions):

Continuous Improvement During Constant Change

"Marketing Blurb" (Committee approved on 9/30/2021)

Accreditation work is an ongoing process that is challenging at the best of times. The recent pandemic made these efforts even more daunting. No matter where your college is in the accreditation process, you are not alone! Join with a community of your peers for the 2022 Academic Senate for California Community College's Accreditation Institute. This event is designed to build our community of support as we meet standards for continuous quality improvement.

*Additional transition time between sessions maybe needed if using Hybrid or Virtual delivery (30 mins).

*The ASCCC Accreditation committee recommends ending with a general session to have a final institute community experience as an opportunity to reinforce a "call to action" for faculty participation and collaboration in all the accreditation work being done locally. Reinforce the theme of the institute and maybe have announcement of future ASCCC institutes and any prize/activity winners identified
